

Home > Tabloids > Potpouri

German int'l school comes to Chennai

January 25th, 2010

SHARE EMAIL PRINT A A

The German International School, Deutsche Schule Chennai (DSC) was inaugurated on Sunday. The Consul General of Federal Republic of Germany, Mr Sauerteig, along with initiators Melanie Rolf and Thomas Pallushek and the ZFA Siegfried Huber cut the ceremonial ribbon as they launched the school. DSC will be the first bilingual international school in the city. German nationals in the city and parents of students who will enroll at DSC were present at the inauguration, which was followed by an activity session for the kids. Seen at the event were Vice-consul, US Consulate Mr Salman K. Khalil, Anna Schultze and Dorothee among others.

Spirit of Freedom

- A youthful republic, at 60, looks ahead
- Build cyber bulwarks
- Your idea can cut drug costs

→ moreBe the first to comment

Replay

Hurry!

Offer extended till 28th February 2010
SMS MYDC to 57007
*Conditions apply

Click here to Subscribe now to Bengaluru Edition

DECCAN Chronicle
No. 1 English Daily in the South

or pay at

call ezee
266 66 666
Any Info. Any Time

BANGALORE
Dial

Indigo
BANGALORE

Prestige

Priyadarshini

NEXT

Replay

Offer extended till 28th February 2010
SMS MYDC to 57007